

23/03/24

Dear Nikshay

This letter is to confirm that the PLANCKS 2024 Finals will take place in Dublin, Republic of Ireland, from the 23rd-27th May 2024. The event will be hosted at Trinity College Dublin and feature a programme of cultural, social, and educational events.

We can confirm that you, Nikshay Chugh, have been awarded a place at the PLANCKS 2024 Finals, as part of team “WattsUp”. The participants will stay for a minimum of two nights, from the 24th of May until the 26th of May (with optional days on either side) at Abbey Court Hostel, 29 Bachelors Walk, North City, Dublin, D01. The two nights’ accommodation costs and meals during their stay will be covered by the team’s participation fee of 300 EURO and event sponsor contributions.

PLANCKS is an official major event of the International Association of Physics Students (IAPS), and in 2024 it will be hosted by the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland’s Institute of Physics (IOP) the professional body and learned society for physics in the UK and Ireland. The event is organised by local university students, members of the IOP, and the PLANCKS Advisory Board. In addition, the event is being supported by Failte Ireland, the European Physical Society, and the International Union of Pure and Applied Physics. Further details about PLANCKS Dublin 2024 can be obtained from our website.

We trust that this letter will be acceptable to the authorities as confirmation of the event details and your participation. Should further information be needed, the embassy is welcome to contact Institute of Physics’ Student Engagement Officer, Bradley Allsop, by email to bradley.allsop@iop.org

Yours sincerely,

Bradley Allsop, Student Engagement Officer,
Institute of Physics
